AVAILABILITY OF JANITROL B SERIES AIRCRAFT HEATER SERVICE & OVERHAUL MANUALS P/N 24E25-1 & P/N 94E47

Hartzell Engine Technologies LLC is pleased to announce the availability of the Janitrol B Series Aircraft Heater Service and Overhaul manuals P/N 24E25-1 for standard units and P/N 94E47 for Extended Life (EL) units. The 24E25-1 has been reissued with updated information and the 94E47 is newly created to service EL type aircraft heaters. Both manuals now include an illustrated parts catalog (IPC) which contain many popular aircraft heater models.

The B Series Aircraft Heater Service and Overhaul manual P/N 24E25-1* covers the B-1500, B-2030, B-3040, and B-4050 heater group. The B Series Aircraft Heater Service and Overhaul manual P/N 94E47 cover the newer, B-2500, B-3500, and B-4500 heater groups. These manuals are published for the information and guidance of all personnel responsible for overhauling, maintaining, and testing of HET aircraft heaters.

**P/N 24E25-1 may also cover this group if a replacement EL type combustion air tube has been installed.*

Manual P/N's 24E25-1 and/or 94E47 may be purchased directly through Hartzell Engine Technologies customer service department. Contact Customer Service at (334) 386-5450 (FAX) for price, availability and orders.
